Saving local business and boost local economies. Connect local shoppers & local business online. Help local residents become smart local shoppers. Launching location based promotion publishing web site for local residents to print free coupon online.

SmartLocalShoppers.com, the new location based online promotions tools for local business, is launching the beta web site to invite all local business in the USA to try out the new system.

Built on top of the advanced web technology, location based promotion system will help local business increase sales, return of investment(ROI) and lower the cost of traditional direct mail and paper coupons.

SmartLocalShoppers.com is built to solve the low ROI issue of traditional paper based coupon advertisement. Most people throw away the coupons sent to their mailbox. By allowing local resident to search online and print only the local coupons they want, it dramatically lower the cost of printing coupons and will indirectly reduce the usage or paper.

The system will also resolve issue that traditional coupons don't reach to the area out side of the zip code. People working and living in different city don't get the same coupons. With SmartLocalShoppers.com's intelligent search engine, visitor can easily search promotions or coupons in different zip codes, cities and states.

SmartLocalShoppers.com is launching the new web site and accepting local business to register as beta tester for FREE. This is a limited-time offer. For local resident to print discount coupons online is always FREE.

We encourage local business to take the advantage to register as early as they can. The fast business register their business and publish their promotions, the fast their promotions will be indexed and broadcast.

We look forward to help local business survive and succeed in the economy crisis.
